

Petra, a Nabatean city

Petra is an ancient city in the south of present-day Jordan. Its worldwide attraction has made it one of Jordan's main tourist poles. Founded in 1200 BC by the Edomites, it was later occupied by the Nabataeans from the 6th century BC who made it prosper thanks to its strategic position on the route of caravans from the East. Today, classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, it is considered one of the most beautiful troglodytic sites in the world.
